Biographical Note

Jon D. Bayer was born May 18, 1944. He enlisted in the Navy as a Hospital Corpsman in 1965, and trained at the National Naval Medical Center in Bethesda, MD. In 1966-1967, Bayer served in Vietnam with the First Battalion Fourth Marines, where he was awarded the Purple Heart and a Bronze Star with a Combat V for heroism in performing his duty as a Navy Hospital Corpsman.

Bayer was discharged in 1969, and went to medical school at Temple University. He returned to active duty shortly after graduation in 1977, serving as the Head of the Arlington Annex Clinic in Washington, D.C., the head of the Washington Navy Yard Clinic, and the Director of Community Health at the Naval Hospital at the Great Lakes Naval Base until 1999.

Scope and Content of the Collection

The collection consists of photos, programs, art, plaques and uniforms related to Capt. Jon D. Bayer's service in the US Marine Corps and the US Navy from his enlistment in 1965 to his retirement in 1999 as a Doctor.

Arrangement

The collection arrived with no discernible arrangement, and was rearranged by PMML staff into 1 slim document box, 1 oversize box, an artifact box, and 2 square boxes. The collection was also arranged into series according to Papers and Artifacts.

Series One: Papers, 1965-2006

This series consists of the papers related to Capt. Jon D. Bayer's service in the US Navy and the US Marine Corps, including programs from events, medical school, and conferences, and other documents.

Series Two: Artifacts, 1965-2006

This series consists of the plaques and art from Dr. Bayer's collection. It also has some medical equipment from the field and military equipment.
