Biographical Note

Lieutenant Colonel Robert Edward Grenig served in the U.S. Army Infantry during World War II, Korean War, and the early stages of the Vietnam War. He was born in Chicago, Illinois on August 4, 1918 to Edward Henry Grenig and Mary Alma Grenig (née Howard). Grenig married Betty Frances Gifford and had two children, Jay and Carolyn.

He enlisted at McGill, Nevada on March 3, 1941. Grenig served as a ROTC instructor in Reno and Salt Lake City. He attended Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia and completed the Officers' Advanced Course. He also attended Army General Staff Infantry Course at Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Grenig was transferred to Manila, Philippines on September 22, 1945 on USS Uruguay to serve in the Chief Transportation office. He was transferred to Korea in June 1946 to serve as Regimental Adjutant and later as Regimental S-3 Officer. While in Korea, he lived with his family in Camp Hillenmeyer.

Grenig was transferred back to the United States in February 1948 and served as a ROTC instructor in Kansas City, Missouri. He attended a Personnel Management Officer Course at The Adjutant General's School at Fort Lee, Virginia in 1950. Grenig was transferred to Tokyo, Japan in February 1952 and served in the Billeting Section assisting members of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission (NNRC). While in Tokyo, he lived with his family in the Washington Heights military housing complex. He returned to the United States in 1954 before being assigned in 1957 to serve in the Military Assistance Advisory Group (MAAG) in Vietnam. Grenig returned to the United States to serve as deputy Assistant Chief of Staff, G1 for 1st Logistical Command at Fort Bragg, North Carolina from 1958 until his retirement on May 1, 1961.

His assignments include: ROTC Salt Lake City High School, Salt Lake City, Utah; ROTC Reno High Schools, Reno, Nevada; Headquarters Armed Forces Western Pacific, Manila, Philippines; 53rd Medium Port, Okinawa Japan; Headquarters 24th Corps, Seoul, Korea; ROTC Kansas City High Schools, Kansas City, Missouri; Military Assistance Advisory Group (MAAG), Saigon, Vietnam; 1st Logistical Command at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.
