Scope and Content of the Collection

The Polson and Rodocker Collection contains materials from multiple generations of the donor's family. This collection includes correspondence, military documents, photographs, and newspaper clippings from World War I and World War II. This collection also contains some material from the Civil War.

Arrangement

The collection arrived in no discernable order. Staff has arranged the collection by category and chronologically. The collection consists of six series:

Series One: Correspondence, 1864, 1917-1919, 1943-1945

Series One includes correspondence from multiple soldiers. The majority of correspondences are from Gaylord (George) Rodocker to his family during World War I. This series also includes correspondence to and from Robert (Bob) Polson during World War II and one letter from Philip Rodocker during the Civil War. Material in this series are arranged chronologically.

Series Two: Military Documents, 1862-1981, u.d.

Series Two includes various forms of military documentation. When possible, documents were organized according to the individual soldiers they pertained to. Documents in this series include materials from the Civil War, World War I, and World War II. Other materials in this series include publications and booklets, individual soldier's journals, airborne leaflets dropped during wartime, and other miscellaneous military documents.

Series Three: Newspaper Clippings, 1918-1985, u.d.

Series Three includes newspaper clippings from c.1918 to 1985. The majority of newspaper clippings are of Gaylord (George) Rodocker's letters home to his family describing his time overseas in World War I. Items in the folder are arranged chronologically.

Series Four: Photographs, 1918-1945, u.d.

Series Four includes photographs from World War I and World War II. The majority of photographs are from Robert (Bob) Polson while he served overseas in Europe during World War II. This series also includes several photographs of Gaylord (George) Rodocker and his family while he was at Camp Grant. Items in this series are arranged chronologically.

Series Five: Miscellaneous Items, 1923-1944, u.d.

Series Five includes miscellaneous items including money from overseas, tickets, blank postcards, and miscellaneous ephemeral items. This series is arranged by category.

Series Six: Oversize Items, u.d.

Series Six includes miscellaneous oversize items like newspapers, maps, and posters. Items in this series are arranged by category.
