Biographical Note

Max R. Rush was born in Maryville, Missouri. He entered the Naval Academy in 1941 and was commissioned in June of 1944. Rush served in the Navy until 1970, earning the rank of Commander. He was on the USS Pensacola from August 1944 to June, 1945. He was designated a Naval Aviator in 1947, after training at Corpus Christi, TX, Pensacola, FL, and others bases.

Rush served in the Korean Conflict, flying fighters off the Boxer and Philippine Sea as well as S2Fs off the Valley Forge, Intrepid, Lake Champlain, and Essex. In the late 1950s and 1960s he was Executive Officer for VS-24, and later Commanding Officer for VS-27. He was Commander for Carrier Anti Submarine Group 56 during the Bay of Pigs.

Concurrent with his Naval service, Rush received a MA in International Relations from George Washington University. He was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal for national security work related to Latin America.

Max married Marie Arnett, also from Maryville, Missouri, on May 11, 1945. Marie had also served in the US Coast Guard from 1943-1945. They had two children, James and Rhonda.

Scope and Content of the Collection

Series One: Military Documents, 1942-1970

These records pertain to Max Rush's service in the US Navy. They include essays, correspondence, records, and orders. This series also includes documents related to his graduation from George Washington University and papers related to German Lw. - Ausb.- Regt. 1 Utersen (air force training regiment). This series also includes certificates that have been placed in an oversize box. Items in folders are arranged chronologically.

Series Two: Photographs

The Photographs in this series include official portraits of Max Rush, Identification photos and ID cards of Rush family members, photographs from the wedding of Max and Marie Rush, and photographs from formal Navy events.

Restrictions

There are 53 pages of indefinitely restricted records. These documents are stamped 'Secret' or 'Restricted' by the creator, the United States Navy, and are currently unavailable to research under the provisions of Executive Order 12958 as amended by Executive Order 13292, which can be found at 68 Federal Register 15315 (March 28, 2003). The restricted items have been separated into a folder that will be removed before researchers are granted access to the collection. A placeholder for each separated removed item sits in each document's original location, referencing the date and number of pages of the restricted record.
